Jennie Baranczyk was named the ninth head coach of the Oklahoma women's basketball program on April 10, 2021. She enters her fifth season in Norman in 2025-26 after leading the program through four of its most successful seasons.

Baranczyk (pronounced buh-RON-check), a 13-year head coach, spent nine seasons at Drake before beginning her tenure at Oklahoma in 2021-22. In four seasons with the Sooners, she has restored the program's national standing, guiding OU to four consecutive NCAA Tournaments, a 2025 Sweet 16 appearance and two conference championships.

Her teams have posted 20-win seasons in 10 of the last 11 years, including four straight at Oklahoma. She has led teams to seven NCAA Tournaments and coached 36 all-conference selections over the last 13 seasons.

Coaching as an assistant for the United States at the 2025 Women's AmeriCup, she helped the stars and stripes win the gold medal.

In 2025, Baranczyk led Oklahoma through its first season in the Southeastern Conference. The Sooners went 27-8, earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the program's first Sweet 16 since 2013. OU went 11-5 in league play, tying for fourth in the SEC and advancing to the conference tournament semifinals.

Player of the Year and Beatrice Culliton made the All-Freshman Team. Williams became OU's first WNBA Draft pick since 2013 and joined Robertson on the AP and WBCA All-America lists.

In her first season, Baranczyk orchestrated one of the nation's top turnarounds. She led the Sooners to a 25-9 record and an NCAA second-round appearance, improving the program by 13 wins from the previous season. She was named a WBCA National Coach of the Year finalist as the team reached 20 wins faster than all but two teams in program history and rose to No. 12 in the AP Poll.

She became the only first-year head coach in OU history to sweep Baylor and Oklahoma State and added a win over Texas. Her four top-25 victories were the most by a first-year Sooner head coach and the most for the program since 2010.

Robertson and Williams were unanimous All-Big 12 First Team picks, the first OU duo to accomplish the feat since 2012. Vann was named Big 12 Sixth Player of the Year and Kelbie Washington earned All-Freshman honors. Robertson earned All-America honorable mention, becoming OU's first All-American since 2014.

Before Oklahoma, Baranczyk went 192-96 at Drake and led the Bulldogs to six straight 20-win seasons and three NCAA Tournament appearances. She was twice named Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year and her .667 winning percentage ranks fifth in league history. She led Drake to back-to-back undefeated MVC regular seasons in 2016-17 and 2017-18 and won the conference tournament both years. Drake went 53-1 in league play over a three-year stretch and won a school-record 22 consecutive games in 2016-17. That year, she was named ESPNW Mid-Major Coach of the Year.

Her time at Drake produced 24 all-conference selections, 18 first-team honorees and five MVC Player of the Year awards. She also coached four MVC Freshman of the Year recipients and the program's first two Defensive Player of the Year winners.

Baranczyk began her coaching career in the Big 12 as an assistant at Kansas State in 2005-06, helping the Wildcats win the WNIT. She later returned to the league as an assistant at Colorado from 2010-12. Between Big 12 stops, she spent four seasons as an assistant at Marquette, where the Golden Eagles posted four postseason appearances and won the 2008 WNIT.

A standout player at Iowa from 2000-04, Baranczyk was a three-time All-Big Ten selection. She helped the Hawkeyes to three NCAA Tournaments and the 2001 Big Ten Tournament title. She finished her career as the only player in program history ranked in the top 10 in points, rebounds, assists, steals and blocks, and one of just two Hawkeyes with at least 1,700 points and 800 rebounds.

She earned her bachelor's degree in communication studies from Iowa in 2004 and received the Big Ten's Medal of Honor, given to one student from each university's graduating class for excellence in scholarship and athletics. She was a three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection, a WBCA Scholarship Award recipient, a CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree and a semifinalist for the Collegiate Basketball Award for Excellence.

Baranczyk earned a master's degree in counseling and student development from Kansas State in 2006. She and her husband Scott have a son, Eli, and two daughters, Jordi and Hope.

PAULINE LOVE

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH | FIRST SEASON

Pauline Love is set to begin her first season as associate head coach at Oklahoma in 2025-26 after being named to Jennie Baranczyk's staff in May 2025.

A 13-year coaching veteran, Love brings a wealth of experience to Norman following eight seasons in the Southeastern Conference with stops at Arkansas (2017–24) and Alabama (2024–25). Widely regarded as one of the nation's top recruiters, she has developed multiple All-Conference players and coached three WNBA Draft selections.

In her lone season at Alabama, Love served as the program's recruiting coordinator and helped lead the Crimson Tide to a 24-8 record and a second-round appearance in the NCAA Tournament. Under her guidance, Alabama landed four top-100 recruits in the 2025 class and produced two WBCA All-Americans in Sarah Ashlee Barker and Aaliyah Nye.

Prior to her time in Tuscaloosa, Love spent seven seasons at Arkansas as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach Mike Neighbors. She helped guide the Razorbacks to two NCAA Tournament berths and signed three McDonald's All-Americans. In addition, she played a key role in securing Izzy Higginbottom via the transfer portal; Higginbottom went on to lead the SEC in scoring in 2024. During Love's tenure, seven Razorbacks earned 12 All-SEC honors.

Love began her coaching career with stints at McNeese (2012-13) and Southern Miss (2013-17), her alma mater. As a player at Southern Miss, Love earned three first-team All-Conference USA selections and remains among the program's all-time leaders in scoring average, rebounding average, field goals made and minutes played. She began her collegiate career at Jones College before transferring to Southern Miss and later played one season with the WNBA's Connecticut Sun.

A native of Luxora, Ark., Love has been inducted into the Southern Miss M-Club Hall of Fame, the Jones College Hall of Fame and the Mississippi Community College Sports Hall of Fame.

SHANNON GAGE

ASSISTANT COACH | FIFTH SEASON

Shannon Gage is set to enter her third year as an assistant coach for the Sooners and fifth season overall with the Sooners in 2025-26.

Gage, a 17-year coaching veteran, served as Oklahoma's director of basketball operations for the first two seasons of the Jennie Baranczyk era before moving into a coaching role ahead of the 2023-24 season.

In her second season as a coach at Oklahoma in 2024-25, Gage played a key role in one of the program's most successful campaigns in over a decade. The Sooners posted a 27-8 record, reached their first Sweet 16 since 2013 and finished 11-5 in their inaugural SEC season. Gage was instrumental in the development of All-SEC honorees Raegan Beers and Payton Verhulst and helped Oklahoma secure one of the nation's top recruiting classes, headlined by No. 1 overall prospect and Gatorade National Player of the Year Aaliyah Chavez.

In her first year on the Oklahoma bench, the Sooners won the program's first outright Big 12 championship since 2009, compiling a 15-3 record in league play and 23-10 record overall. OU earned an at-large berth in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the second round. Gage aided in the development of Big 12 Co-Player of the Year Skylar Vann and Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Payton Verhulst – both of which earned WBCA All-America honors. In total, four Sooners earned All-Big 12 honors with Gage's assistance.

A Tulsa, Oklahoma, native, Gage returned to coaching in 2023 after a nine-year hiatus, where she served in various behind-the-scenes roles. Before joining the Oklahoma staff on the operations side, she worked as an assistant coach at Oklahoma State (2013-15), Iowa (two stints: 03-05, 07-13) and Michigan (2005-07). In her three seasons in Stillwater, she helped guide the Cowgirls to three consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including a run to the Sweet 16 in 2014. Her three-year tenure at OSU produced the third-most winningest stretch in the program's history, compiling a record of 66-31.

At Iowa, Gage worked with Hawkeye perimeter players, coaching 19 All-Big Ten selections, the 2010 Big Ten Freshman of the Year and the 2003 Big Ten Sixth Player of the Year. With Gage helping lead the charge, the Hawkeyes signed a top-10 recruiting class, bringing some of the nation's top talent to Iowa City. Additionally, she coached a pair of all-district selections and two honorable mention All-Americans. With Gage on the bench, the Hawkeyes appeared in seven NCAA Tournaments, including 2004, when All-Big Ten selection Baranczyk starred on the court for Iowa and won the 2008 Big Ten regular season championship.

A 1999 graduate of Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State), Gage was a standout guard for the Bears for head coach Cheryl Burnett. She appeared in 91 games making 11 starts for the Bears and totaled over 1,200 minutes played. While on the team, Missouri State compiled an 87-33 record and 57-15 mark in the Missouri Valley Conference, appearing three times in the NCAA Tournament.

MICHAEL NEAL

ASSISTANT COACH | FIFTH SEASON

Michael Neal will enter his fifth season on the Oklahoma bench in 2025-26 after joining Jennie Baranczyk's staff upon her arrival in 2021.

In four seasons as an assistant coach under Baranczyk, Neal has helped guide the Sooners to two conference championships, four NCAA Tournament appearances and 15 All-Conference selections.

During the 2024-25 season, Neal helped lead Oklahoma to a 27-8 record and its first Sweet 16 appearance since 2013. The Sooners excelled in their SEC debut, finishing 11-5 in conference play, and Neal played a key role in the development of All-SEC selections Raegan Beers and Payton Verhulst. He also helped secure the nation's No. 15 recruiting class.

In his third year on staff, Oklahoma captured the outright Big 12 championship — the program's first since 2009 — and finished 23-10 overall. The Sooners reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament and had four players earn All-Big 12 recognition, highlighted by Skylar Vann's Big 12 Co-Player of the Year honor and Payton Verhulst's selection as Big 12 Newcomer of the Year.

Neal's second season saw OU post a 14-4 record in conference play to earn a share of its first Big 12 title since 2009. Five players received postseason Big 12 recognition — the most in the league — including Madi Williams, who was a unanimous All-Big 12 First Team selection, and Skylar Vann, who earned Big 12 Sixth Player of the Year honors. The Sooners advanced to the NCAA second round for the second straight year.

In his first season at Oklahoma, Neal helped guide the Sooners to the program's first NCAA second-round appearance since 2017. The team ranked third nationally in scoring (82.6 PPG), scored the second-most points in program history (2,808), and made a school-record 316 3-pointers. That season, OU swept Baylor and Oklahoma State and recorded four wins over ranked opponents — the most ever by a first-year staff.

Prior to joining the Sooners, Neal spent seven seasons as head coach of the Norman High School girls' basketball team, leading the Lady Tigers to a 43-1 record over his final two seasons and Class 6A state championships in 2019 and 2021. He was named The Oklahoman's 2021 Super 5 Coach of the Year and USA Today's Oklahoma Coach of the Year.

A familiar face at Lloyd Noble Center, Neal played for the Oklahoma men's basketball team during the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons. He averaged 11.0 points and 2.6 rebounds per game and shot 37.5% from 3-point range with 136 career makes. He helped the Sooners to a 20-9 record and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2006.

After his collegiate career, Neal played professionally in France and Germany with Saint-Quentin and the Düsseldorf Magics before returning to the U.S. to begin coaching.

Neal and his wife, LaToya, live in Norman with their two sons, Nash and Jude, and daughter, Emry.

MARKISHA KASTANTIN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT AND ASSISTANT COACH | FIFTH SEASON

A trusted member of Jennie Baranczyk's staff, Markisha Kastantin (KASS-ten-teen) enters her third season as an assistant coach and fifth year overall with the Oklahoma women's basketball program in 2025-26.

Kastantin served as Director of Player Development during Baranczyk's first two seasons in Norman before being elevated to assistant coach ahead of the 2023-24 campaign, while continuing to oversee player development.

In her second year on the bench, Kastantin helped guide the Sooners to one of their most successful seasons in over a decade. Oklahoma finished 27-8 overall and reached the program's first Sweet 16 since 2013, posting an 11-5 record in its inaugural season in the Southeastern Conference. She played a key role in the development of All-SEC selections Raegan Beers and Payton Verhulst.

During her first season as an assistant in 2023-24, Oklahoma captured the Big 12 regular season title with a 15-3 conference record and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament as a No. 5 seed. Kastantin was instrumental in the development of Big 12 Co-Player of the Year Skylar Vann and Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Payton Verhulst, contributing to a season that produced four All-Big 12 selections and two All-Americans.

Since joining OU's staff in 2020, the Sooners have posted three straight 20-win seasons, won two Big 12 championships and made three NCAA Tournament appearances. Across her full coaching career under Baranczyk, which began at Drake in 2015-16, Kastantin has helped guide teams to eight 20-win seasons, six NCAA Tournament berths and five conference titles.

A former standout at Notre Dame, Kastantin (formerly Wright) helped the Fighting Irish to four consecutive Final Fours from 2012 to 2015. She appeared in 138 career games, the 11th-most in program history, and served as a team captain. She was also a two-time ACC Academic Honor Roll selection.

Kastantin began her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Drake in 2015 before being promoted to full-time assistant in 2016. Over her six years with the Bulldogs, the program compiled a 144-50 (.742) record. From 2017 to 2019, Drake dominated the Missouri Valley Conference with a 55-1 record in league play and three straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

She earned her bachelor's degree in sociology from Notre Dame in 2015 and completed a master's degree in leadership development at Drake.

PROGRAM COORDINATOR AND ASSISTANT COACH | FOURTH SEASON

Tyus Hooks enters his third season as an assistant coach and fourth year overall with the Oklahoma women's basketball program in 2024-25.

Hooks joined the Sooners as program coordinator in 2022-23, assisting with recruiting and off-court recruiting strategy before being elevated to assistant coach ahead of the 2023-24 season.

In 2024-25, Hooks helped lead Oklahoma to a 27-8 record and its first Sweet 16 appearance since 2013. The Sooners thrived in their inaugural SEC campaign, finishing 11-5 and finished ranked 11th in the final AP poll. Hooks played a key role in developing All-SEC selections Raegan Beers and Payton Verhulst while continuing to make a major impact on the recruiting trail, aiding in the signing of the nation's top-ranked recruiting class, highlighted by No. 1 overall prospect and Gatorade National Player of the Year Aaliyah Chavez.

In his first season on the bench, Hooks helped guide OU to a 23-10 record, a Big 12 regular season title and a second-round NCAA Tournament appearance. He was instrumental in the development of Big 12 Co-Player of the Year Skylar Vann and Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Payton Verhulst. As program coordinator in 2022-23, Hooks contributed to a 26-7 season that included a share of the program's first Big 12 regular season title since 2009 and a second round NCAA Tournament berth. Oklahoma finished among the nation's top offenses, led by All-Americans Madi Williams and Taylor Robertson.

JOSEPH HARROZ JR.

PRESIDENT, UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

Serving the University of Oklahoma for over 29 years in various leadership roles, Joseph Harroz Jr. was named the 15th president of OU on May 9, 2020. Harroz's previous service to the university includes a one-year term as interim president, nine years as dean of the College of Law, 12 years as general counsel, and two years as vice president for executive affairs.

Under Harroz's leadership, the university has ambitiously pursued the fulfillment of its "Lead On, University" Strategic Plan, sparking a spirit of excellence across its campuses and reshaping its trajectory in ways that will endure for generations to come. To build on the momentum and elevate OU's impact, the next phase of the Strategic Plan embraces transformative new aspirations that reaffirm the university's commitment to the highest levels of academic excellence, research innovation, student success and service to the state and beyond.

The last four years have seen record-breaking freshman classes. For the 2024-2025 school year, total enrollment across all OU campuses rose 5.7% – the largest percentage increase in nearly 50 years. New student enrollment at OU Health Sciences has grown by 18% in just two years, and online enrollment has increased by more than 100% in five years. OU's research momentum continues to accelerate, reaching $411 million in externally funded research awarded across the university. The OU research enterprise has become the 4th fastest-growing research university in the nation, and OU ranks among the top 8% of research universities nationally. The historic merger in 2021 to create OU Health has brought immense benefits to the state and its people. As Oklahoma's first comprehensive academic health system, OU Health is delivering world-class health care, training tomorrow's health professionals, and meeting the toughest medical challenges with pioneering research and innovation.

An abundance of other successes have come to life since the Strategic Plan's introduction — the announcement of a historic $2 billion fundraising campaign, a continued focus on balancing excellence with affordability, the addition of premier freshman housing, entering the SEC, and more.

A native Oklahoman, Harroz graduated Phi Beta Kappa from OU in 1989 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and a minor in zoology. He earned his J.D. in 1992 from Georgetown University Law Center.

JOE CASTIGLIONE

VICE PRESIDENT FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS PROGRAMS AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Few collegiate athletics administrators have experienced the long-term success that Joe Castiglione has enjoyed at the University of Oklahoma.

In his 28th year at the helm of the legendary program, he leads an OU Athletics Department that hardly resembles the one that welcomed him in July of 1998. From conference realignment — now in the Southeastern Conference after 28 years in the Big 12 — to fundraising records and significant growth in capital projects, Castiglione has shaped and stewarded the department's widespread and longstanding success. In fact, the Sooners have won 26 of their 45 team national championships since he arrived in Norman. He has celebrated 117 conference titles in that same period.

By creating a positive culture based on core values, a dynamic vision and a collaborative spirit, Castiglione has made OU Athletics a "destination of choice" and a world-class experience for student-athlete development.

Of course, Oklahoma is not immune to any of the challenges intercollegiate athletics has faced in the past quarter century, and through it all, Castiglione has stood unwavering in his commitment to position OU Athletics as one of the nation's premier programs. For many, it was his response to the COVID-19 pandemic that demonstrated the leader he really is.

As the pandemic arrived, then continued to worsen, Castiglione led the department through the sudden ending of the academics and athletics year with a calm and determined approach. His leadership gave OU's student-athletes, coaches and staff ample reasons to be confident the Sooners would get through the challenges that awaited. Their confidence was warranted.

After an incredibly successful 2023-24 athletics campaign that yielded OU's eighth softball national championship, including an unprecedented fourth straight and sixth in eight seasons, the 2024-25 academic year was even more fruitful. Highlights included women's gymnastics winning its seventh national championship, all in the last 11 seasons, and sharing the SEC regular season title, softball claiming the regular season SEC crown and sharing the league's postseason tournament title, men's gymnastics winning the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation championship and finishing third at NCAAs, men's (sixth) and women's (14th) track and field both finishing in the top 15 at the NCAA Outdoor Championships for the first time in program history and women's basketball advancing to the Sweet 16 for the first time in 12 years.

The Learfield Director's Cup recognizes overall program excellence. The Sooners have ranked among the top 25 in 22 of Castiglione's 27 years and finished ninth in 2024-25, their best showing since 2012-13. (With the interruption of competition schedules, the Learfield Director's Cup was not awarded for 2019-20.)

Individually, OU student-athletes during Castiglione's tenure have flourished, producing countless all-conference, All-America and national-player-of-the-year honors, including Heisman Trophy winners Jason White, Sam Bradford, Baker Mayfield and Kyler Murray, Naismith and Wooden Award winners Blake Griffin and Buddy Hield, and USA Softball Collegiate Players of the Year Keilani Ricketts and Jocelyn Alo (twice each). Alo is the NCAA's all-time record holder in home runs. Sooners were named Big 12 Athlete of the Year 15 times in the first 28 years of the league (11 times over their last 12 years as a member).

GPA numbers and graduation rates continue to set program records under Castiglione's watch. OU's standard-setting 3.31 cumulative 2025 spring semester GPA marked the 27th consecutive term that OU's student-athletes as a group recorded a 3.0 or better figure. And the 2023-24 graduation success rate report reflected an OU-record-tying 89% figure.

OU Athletics, one of the few remaining self-sustaining departments nationally, has been a model of fiscal responsibility and has benefited the general campus. Through direct and indirect support, the athletics department provides millions of dollars annually to OU's academic budget. It also established an endowment at Bizzell Library and partnered with the president's office to eliminate the admission fee at OU's internationally known Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art.

Athletics facilities improvement and construction have been carried out at a record pace and Castiglione takes pride in the fact that the majority of improvements have been funded by private donations. He was instrumental in the athletics department's major campaign at the turn of the century, Great Expectations: The Campaign for Sooner Sports, that impacted each of OU's athletics programs and became a national model. During the 2021-22 fiscal year, OU Athletics received a then-record-breaking $109 million in donations and pledges (the previous single-year record was $58 million), and followed in 2022-23 with its second-highest figure ($79 million). The 2023-24 and 2024-25 fiscal years resulted in more fundraising records, as OU secured $110 million and $113 million in total donations and pledges, respectively.

A $160 million Gaylord Family – Oklahoma Memorial Stadium renovation was completed prior to the 2017 season and included enclosure of the south end zone, new seating options for Sooner fans and new team facilities. The Griffin Family Performance Center for men's and women's basketball at Lloyd Noble Center opened in 2018. Refurbished men's and women's basketball team areas and construction on a new softball stadium — Love's Field — were completed in spring 2024. Other projects recently completed or underway include new team facilities for golf, gymnastics and tennis, with major renovations planned for baseball. The $75 million Headington Hall provides housing for the general student population as well as student-athletes and is recognized as making OU the leader in providing an engaging community living option for students. The state-of-the-art building opened in August 2013 and has won the President's Trophy as the outstanding housing unit on campus five times.

In 2021, Castiglione recommended to the OU President and Board of Regents that the university seek membership in the Southeastern Conference for an eventual 2025 move. Castiglione, who played a large role in the formation of the Big 12, ensured OU fulfilled its obligations to the league, which the Sooners joined in 1996. After negotiating an agreeable earlier exit from the Big 12, OU entered the SEC officially on July 1, 2024, after 28 years in the Big 12. The decision arguably set in motion a series of conference realignments that followed throughout the then-Power Five conferences. Membership in the SEC for OU, according to Castiglione, was always about seizing future stability for the university at a time of great disruption within intercollegiate athletics.

Castiglione was named Co-National Athletic Director of the Year in May 2018 by Sports Business Journal. He had won the award in 2009 and been a finalist in 2016. A survey conducted by Sports Illustrated in the summer of 2017 named him the best athletics director in the country, and Stadium selected him in 2020 as the nation's top AD. Other awards and honors include the 2023 LEAD1 Association Pearl Award of Excellence, 2018 Katha Quinn Award (U.S. Basketball Writers of America);

2018 induction into the Oklahoma Sports Hall of Fame; the 2013 John L. Toner Award (National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame); Carl Maddox Sports Management Award (United States Sports Academy); 2000 and 2018 Athletics Director of the Year (NACDA); 2004 Athletics Director of the Year (Bobby Dodd Foundation); 2003 induction into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators Hall of Fame; and the 2001 General Robert R. Neyland Athletic Director Award for lifetime achievement (All-American Football Foundation).

He earned a master's of education degree in May 2007 and became an adjunct professor in OU's Jeannine Rainbolt College of Education, teaching graduate classes in marketing, development and leadership in higher education. He serves on the college's board of advocates and received the "Award of Distinction" given by the college in 2019. He was recognized for his distinguished service by OU's College of Arts and Sciences and was named a Price College Distinguished Partner in 2018.

Hired on April 30, 1998, Castiglione previously served as athletics director at Missouri for five years. His career began as the sports promotions director at Rice. Other stops included director of athletic fundraising at Georgetown, then director of communications and marketing at Missouri. He marks his 33rd year of serving student-athletes as an athletics director with the 2025-26 academic year.

OKLAHOMA'S 26 TEAM NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS UNDER CASTIGLIONE

Fifty-eight percent of Oklahoma's team national championships — 26 of 45 — have come since Joe Castiglione was hired as athletics director in 1998. Not including the pandemic-shortened 2019-20 school year, the Sooners have won at least one national title in each of the last 12 years, and have totaled 19 during that period. In spring 2017 alone, OU captured national championships in men's and women's gymnastics, men's golf and softball, all in the span of 52 days.

Men's gymnastics has won nine national championships since Castiglione arrived in Norman while softball has won eight (including four of the last five), women's gymnastics seven (all since 2014) and football and men's golf one each.

A 1979 Maryland graduate, Castiglione received the university's Distinguished Alumnus Award in April 2007 and was inducted into the State of Missouri's Sports Hall of Fame in November 2015.

He completed a term on the College Football Playoff Committee in January 2021, making him the only person in history to serve on that committee as well as the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball and Baseball committees. He has served on multiple NCAA committees and commissions, including the NCAA's Board of Governor's Commission to Combat Sexual Violence on Campus, NCAA Championship/Competition Cabinet, the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Discussion Group and the United States Olympic Committee Athlete Career and Education Strategic Working Group. He formerly served on the Gatorade Collegiate Advisory Board and continues to serve on the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame Board of Directors.

Castiglione is a past president of both the Division I-A Athletic Directors Association and NACDA. He also served three terms as the chair of the Big 12 Board of Athletics Directors. A former member of the Phi Delta Theta Foundation Board of Trustees, he is a highly requested speaker at annual conventions and continuing education institutes, and in 2025 was inducted into the organization's national sports hall of fame. In November 2011, his hometown recognized him by selecting him for the Broward County (Fla.) Sports Hall of Fame.

Locally, he has served the United Way of Norman, among other organizations. His third term as OU's campus co-chair resulted in the highest recorded contributions ever by faculty, staff and students to the United Way of Norman's annual campaign. He encourages student-athletes and athletics staff to engage in those efforts as well, with OU Athletics representatives having been known to participate in more than 5,000 hours of community service per year.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Castiglione is married to the former Kristen Bartel, a 1990 graduate of the University of Missouri. They are the parents of two sons, Joseph Jr., who earned a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and a master's degree from Oklahoma in 2019 and 2021, respectively, and Jonathan, who graduated from OU in 2023 with a bachelor's degree in journalism (creative media production).

32-4 Overall Record
5-1 NCAA Tournament Record
Coached by Sherri Coale

Oklahoma made history in 2002 with its first trip to the NCAA Final Four. The Sooners dominated NCAA action by winning five of their six games by an average margin of 21 points. After capturing the Big 12 regular season and tournament titles, OU earned a No. 1 seed in the West Region and opened NCAA action inside Lloyd Noble Center. The Sooners advanced to the Sweet 16 with a pair of victories over Hartford (84-52) and Villanova (66-53). However, in order to advance to the Final Four, OU had to eliminate two Big 12 teams. First up was Texas Tech. Oklahoma handed the Lady Raiders a 72-62 loss, before routing Colorado, 94-60, for the right to play in the Final Four in San Antonio. Oklahoma shocked Duke with an 86-71 win in the NCAA semifinals before suffering a disappointing 82-70 loss to national powerhouse Connecticut in the national championship game. OU concluded the season 32-4 as the No. 2 team in the AP and USA Today/Coaches Polls.

32-5 Overall Record
4-1 NCAA Tournament Record
Coached by Sherri Coale

Oklahoma swept through its home state once again in the 2009 NCAA Championship en route to its second Final Four appearance. Following its sixth Big 12 season championship, OU was rewarded with the No. 1 seed in the Oklahoma City Region, ensuring a path through the Sooner State. Oklahoma dropped Prairie View (76-47) and Georgia Tech (69-50) in Iowa City, Iowa in the first and second rounds. At the Ford Center in Oklahoma City, the Sooner Nation swarmed to the best-attended regional site of the season as OU played in front of crowds of more than 11,000 on its home turf. The Sooners dispatched Pittsburgh (70-59) and Purdue (74-68) to punch a ticket to St. Louis and the Final Four. Oklahoma fell to Louisville at the buzzer, 61-59, ending its remarkable run. The Sooners matched their single-season program record for wins with 32 and finished fourth in the national polls.

›› 2010

27-11 Overall Record
4-1 NCAA Tournament Record
Coached by Sherri Coale

The route ran through the Sooner State, ending in familiar territory, as Oklahoma earned a consecutive berth in the NCAA Women's Final Four. Despite the loss of the previous year's star-studded senior class and a season-ending injury to All-America candidate Whitney Hand, the Sooners never wavered from their identity of resilience. OU fought through the nation's toughest schedule and was rewarded with a road to the Final Four that started at home. The Sooners handled South Dakota State and Little Rock at Lloyd Noble Center in the first and second rounds before winning dramatically at the Kansas City Regional. Oklahoma needed last-minute heroics to take down Notre Dame 77-72 in OT and rallied to defeat a pesky Kentucky squad 88-68. No. 2 Stanford loomed in San Antonio, site of the OU's first Final Four and national runner-up finish in 2002, and despite a valiant second-half effort to take an 18-point deficit to one possession, the Sooners fell 73-66.

›› Stacey Dales was drafted third overall in the 2002 WNBA Draft and is OU's highest draft pick in program history.

Here's your shot. If you want to make a name for yourself as an elite player, you come to the University of Oklahoma. The Sooners have littered the draft board in recent seasons, no more evident than in 2010 when the entire senior class was selected by teams.

First-Round Draft Picks

Oklahoma is fourth among SEC teams with six first-round WNBA picks. The latest of those was Danielle Robinson, who was selected sixth overall in 2011 by the San Antonio Stars. OU has had six players — Stacey Dales, Rosalind Ross, LaNeishea Caufield, Dionnah Jackson, Courtney Paris and Robinson — taken in the first round of the draft since the league's inception.

15 WNBA Draft Picks

A total of 15 Sooners — Caufield, Dales, Whitney Hand, Jackson, Abi Olajuwon, Ashley Paris, Courtney Paris, Robinson, Ross, Leah Rush, Nyeshia Stevenson, Amanda Thompson, Maria Villarroel, Phylesha Whaley and Madi Williams — have been drafted into the league.

Coaching At The Next Level

Former Sooner greats have made their presence known on the court, but now are impacting the game in another way - coaching. Courtney Paris (Chicago), Abi Olajuwon (Connecticut) and Danielle Robinson (Los Angeles) are all assistants in the W. Olajuwon coached for Team Nigeria at the 2024 Olympics.

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

It's recognized as one of the toughest gyms in college basketball and since Oklahoma women's basketball began playing in the Lloyd Noble Center (LNC) in 1976, the Sooners have made plenty of memories there. Stacey Dales, Aaryn Ellenberg, Courtney Paris, Danielle Robinson and Phylesha Whaley are just a few that have graced the court and started for the Sooners.

It's where OU set a school record with 26 consecutive home wins during a three-year stretch from 1984-86. The Lloyd Noble Center has been the foundation of the program's significant growth over the last 25 years.

The Sooners are 475-175 (.731) all-time at the Lloyd Noble Center with over two million fans walking through the facility's doors since 1997.

In 2024, the team's facility went under a renovation that provided the program with a world-class locker room, recovery areas and team rooms.

» GRIFFIN FAMILY PERFORMANCE CENTER

Want to train at the nation's premier basketball facility for strength and performance? Oklahoma is the place for you.

NBA star Blake Griffin committed in August 2016 to help financially support the construction of the approximately 18,400-gross-square foot training center. The addition, which was built south of the men's and women's basketball's two existing practice gyms and helps enhance strength training facilities for both men's and women's programs, as well other Sooner student-athletes, is called the Griffin Family Performance Center. The approximate total cost of the project was $7 million.

"We are grateful for Blake Griffin and his family for the mark they are leaving on the University of Oklahoma and our basketball programs," former OU women's basketball head coach Sherri Coale. "Their generosity will impact OU student-athletes for years to come and give many unparalleled opportunities for success. This training facility will be help our student-athletes reach their full potential and allow our teams to continue to compete at a championship level."

"Being a Sooner is more than just what you do in competition," said Griffin, who was the 2009 consensus national player of the year and the No. 1 overall pick in that year's NBA Draft. "I am thankful to have had the opportunity to play OU basketball, which has a legacy of people that have made it great. College is such a critical time in an athlete's playing career and it's my honor to help give the men's and women's teams the resources and technology that will give them the best opportunity to succeed. I am humbled that OU has chosen to name this facility after me, and I am really excited to see this high-performance training center come to life."

The Griffin Family Performance Center is the first of its kind among the nation's collegiate basketball programs. Some of the many features include basketball training courts, free weights, indoor turf, outdoor turf with sand pit, spaces for plyometric and cardiovascular training, cardio and strength testing, locker rooms, an exam and recovery area, a fueling station, a multi-purpose room and overhead fresh-air doors.

» 2025-26 MEDIA POLICIES

Priority for press credentials will be given to media outlets who regularly cover OU basketball. National media outlets will also receive consideration. Media with a scannable credential from OU football games should use the same credential for basketball access.

Courtside media access will be granted on a game-by-game basis to photographers and videographers that regularly cover OU women's basketball. Photographers and videographers not associated with OU Athletics will not be granted seating on the risers south of the court and must use the photo/video work room in located in the tunnel as a work station.

» MEDIA SEATING

Media seating for the 2025-26 season will be in section 207 (upper media area; same as last year). This section includes three rows of tables with workspaces. Printed game notes and materials will be available in the media workroom off the tunnel. There will be no media seating on either side of the south tunnel this season, and photographers and videographers will need to work out of the media workroom when not shooting the game.

» PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers and videographers will be limited to the southwest and northeast corners of the baselines.

» VISITING TEAM MEDIA

Two media seats will be designated for visiting team media in 2025-26, if requested. Should the visiting team's press corps choose to not attend the game, the seats will be reallocated to home media members.

» CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests should be made to Josh Poteet via email (jpoteet@ou.edu) no later than 24 hours before each game. Organizations may request single-game credentials for the entire season, but requests will be evaluated on a game-by-game basis. The home SID will distribute an email the day before each game to notify your organization which media members will be permitted a credential.

» PARKING

Media members should park on the southeast side of the arena. No pass or payment is required.

» CREDENTIAL PICKUP

Credentials for OU home games may be picked up in the tunnel entrance beginning two hours prior to tipoff.

Photo identification is required for pickup. Each media representative must claim his or her pass.

» WNBA SCOUTS

Press credentials will issued on a limited basis to WNBA scouts for the 2025-26 season. If credential allotment is filled, tickets may be requested based upon availability.

» INTERVIEW POLICY

Postgame interviews will be conducted in-person in the press conference room located in the tunnel. Midweek availabilities will be held on Zoom.

Non-postgame interviews with players or coaches must be arranged through Josh Poteet (jpoteet@ou.edu)and requested at least 24 hours in advance of the desired interview time.

Only postgame interviews are allowed on game days.

» VISITING RADIO

Visiting radio crews are positioned next to their team's bench, on the north end of the east sidelines and receive four seats.

» POOL REPORTER POLICY

Any questions from the media directed to officials, Coordinators of Officials or Conference Sport Administrators should be referred promptly to the respective Conference sport communications contact to assess and develop any necessary response.

» RADIO TALENT

BRIAN BRINKLEY
Voice of OU WBB

Brian Brinkley enters his 25th season as the Voice of the Sooners for Oklahoma women's basketball in 2025-26.

The longtime Sports Director at KFOR-TV (NBC) in Oklahoma City, Brinkley began his career there in 1990 as a production assistant before becoming a sports anchor and reporter in 1992, serving as weekend sports anchor for nearly two decades.

Brinkley has called some of the most iconic moments in Sooner history, including three Final Fours, eight conference championships, and milestones like Taylor Robertson's NCAA-record 3-pointer and Courtney Paris' double-double streak.

A three-time finalist for Oklahoma Sportscaster of the Year, Brinkley has also earned two honors from the Oklahoma Association of Broadcasters for excellence in sports reporting and sportscasting.

An OU graduate with a degree in journalism and philosophy, he lives in Edmond with his wife and daughter.

CAROLYN BAKER
OU WBB Analyst

Carolyn (Winchester) Baker enters her first season as the radio analyst for Oklahoma women's basketball, joining play-by-play voice Brian Brinkley on the call for Sooner broadcasts.

A standout guard for Oklahoma from 2006–09, Baker helped lead the Sooners to two conference championships and a trip to the 2009 Final Four. Known for her leadership and basketball IQ, she now brings that same insight to the broadcast booth.

Baker's Sooner roots run deep — her brother, James Winchester, is a three-time Super Bowl champion longsnapper for the Kansas City Chiefs and played at OU from 2008–11. Her father, Mike, punted at OU from 1984-85.

LUIS RENDON
Los Sooners Radio

ENRIQUE VASQUEZ
Los Sooners Radio

Luis Rendón and Enrique Vásquez will make history this season as the first duo to call Oklahoma women's basketball games in Spanish for Los Sooners Radio, establishing the Sooners as the first women's basketball program in the nation to feature a dedicated Spanish-language radio broadcast.

The longtime partners have worked together on Oklahoma football broadcasts in Spanish since 2017, bringing Sooner athletics to life for Spanish-speaking fans across the region and around the world. Their calls have become a key part of OU's efforts to expand its reach and connect with a growing fan base.

» THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

GREG SANKEY
Commissioner

A pioneer in the integration of higher education and athletic competition, the Southeastern Conference is a leader on the national landscape for intercollegiate athletics in the 21st century.

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has achieved stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. These university leaders determine the policies of the conference and through the years this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC. Throughout its 82-year history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition.

Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt have been in the SEC since its formation in 1933. The league has expanded three times, adding Arkansas and South Carolina in 1991, then Missouri and Texas A&M in 2012, then Oklahoma and Texas on July 1, 2024.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another more than 120 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta Dec. 22, 1894.

The first SEC champions were crowned in 1933 in baseball, basketball, football and outdoor track. The league's inaugural championship event was a basketball tournament in Atlanta, Feb. 24-28, 1933. Records show the first men's team title for cross country was awarded in 1935, while golf and swimming were added in 1937. The league later began hosting championships in tennis (1938) and indoor track (1957).

In the 1979-80 academic year SEC championships for women were recognized in basketball, tennis and volleyball. The following year golf, gymnastics, swimming and track & field were added. Soccer was added in 1993 and softball began SEC play in 1997. The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984.

In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletics opportunities, each school provides at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's teams on each campus.

The conference approved women's rowing as its 22nd sponsored sport for the 2024-25 academic year. The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 13 women's sports.

Men's sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, swimming, tennis, and indoor and outdoor track and field;

Women's sports: basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field, rowing and volleyball.
